

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the graduating class of Saint Michael's School being of sound mind and body hereby leave to the seventh graders of this school our Last Will and Testament. We hope that they may follow in our footsteps and do as well as we did.

1. I, Jimmy Dalpiaz, bequeath my ability to think slowly and act quickly to John Orazem.
2. I, Richard Redano, leave to Steven Toth my thriving bubble gum business, and my popularity among the girls.
3. I, Paul Corriveau, leave Tim Couto my magnificent charm and good looks, but most of all my eloquence with every girl I meet.
4. I, Jane Martin, hereby leave to Nancy Block my great guarding ability and my magnificent saying - "Ugh, un, ga, wah!"
5. I, Jo Anne Jacobs, leave Doris Seufert my ability to play basketball and my good grades in English.
6. I, Mark Andrew John Sirois, being of sound mind and body, hereby declare to Sammy Gathings my 5' 8½" muscular build to be used for sporting purposes; and I leave my bushy hair and my fantastic ability to strike out in baseball to anyone who wants it.
7. I, Carey McCloskey, leave to Susan Gardner my great ability and co-ordination for cheerleading.
8. I, Julie Kamienski, hereby bequeath to Suzanne Strout my desk with its convertible top.
9. I, Wendy LeGette, leave Susan Golob my great ability to gain weight and all in spirit.
10. I, Gloria Dow, leave to Pam Sowersby my ability to pay attention in class and my lovely pig tails.
11. I, the one and only Robert Gregory Paul McKenzie hereby bequeath to Bill Baucom my fantastic ability to hide bubble gum in my upper lip without being noticed by Mr. Rabadeau.
12. I, Mike Hamilton, being of sound mind and body hereby leave to Mark Stewart my incredible cunning form and my spectacular performance in basketball. I also leave my prized possession of having natural curly hair.
13. I, Robbie Nelli, bequeath to my brother John my great height and superb rebounding ability. But most of all, I leave my curly side burns.
14. I, Holt Anthony, leave to Heidi Haselden, my freckles and ability to spell.
15. I, Robbie Barger, leave to Phillip Cherry my ability to play center in basketball and center field in baseball.

16. I, Debbie Stowe, leave to Cindy Alger the opportunity to aggravate Mr. Bullock and the ability to answer his English questions.
17. I, Robert Frank Walkowiak II, being partially sound in mind and body leave to Carroll Barger my great ability to attract at least half the girls in my class. I also leave to the above mentioned my great ability to ride a horse.
18. I, Lee Carver, leave to Scott Hasty all my good answers in class and my great luck and fun on the class trip. Also I leave him my ability to do well in Field Day.
19. I, Susan Dow, leave to Laurie Hoyle my ability to get any Walkowiak except the ones I want. I leave to Abby Gathings my shinny red hair and my tallness. Also I leave to Francene Hilton my ability to chew gum. I also leave her my grades in Math and History.
20. I, Thomas Augustine Will II, leave Thomas James Walkowiak I my desk and my patience, because he's going to need them next year.
21. I, Nancy Carswell, leave Pat Rhyne the ability to get her foot in her shoe when no one else can.
22. I, Susan Hill, leave to Terry Laws my talents in Math and also my hair curling secrets.
23. I, Ken Hoffman, bequeath the plot of ground on which my desk rests to Kevin Geyer so that he may have the feeling of security that I had during our grotesque science classes.
24. I, Jerry Orazem, leave my height and rebounding ability to Joe Gallagher.
25. I, Robin Miller, leave to Karen Shuerg my ability to be a great page-turner to any pianoist that comes along. Also I leave to her my ability to shoot foul shots at the last second remaining in a game.
26. I, Payton Huddleston, leave Tom Shenigo my ability to keep quiet and humble.
27. I, Darcel Ewing, bequeath to my lawful heir, Kate Brown, my abounding abilities ~~xx~~ in sports and my hair straightening secrets.
28. I, Whit Keane, do bequeath to John Hornell my canny ability to be alert and looking alive at all times; also my fortunate actor of being accident proof and last, but not least, my most prized possession consisting of an alligator baggie with the remains of my last hair cut, my fool proof system of never watching a third strike, and my overwhelming charm and funny jokes.
29. I, Sherry Alala, leave to Laurie Will my dark hari and makeup case.

And last, but certainly not least, we leave St. Michael's, Mr. Rabadeau and the greatest faculty and pastor St. Michael's has ever had; treat them as well as they have treated us.

Signed and Sealed

The Eighth Grade Graduates on this the 27th day of May in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and seventy.
